Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.How do you deal with workplace interruptions? What do you say to the person who always arrives late? Do you know what to do when you're expected at a mandatory office party? What can be done about the office gossip or the contrarian who is always argumentative? Is it right for someone to campaign for politicians at your office? Managing workplace stress includes controlling the minor irritants that get on our last nerve. In this book you'll find ways to deal with the day-to-day irritants that add to the overall stress load, affect productivity, and cost your company a lot of money. Each of the situations noted in Last Nerve comes from real life examples, either observed in the Dale Collie's own forty years of leadership experience or from a popular radio program where he answered listener questions about workplace pet peeves. You'll find out how to deal with things such as: Not Enough Work Too Much Work Organize Your Desk Top Good People are Leaving Stuck in My Job Low...
