New , Never read , Never marked . Gift Giving quality . 133 pages ; illustrated with photographs throughout . The Animals . They were the raunchiest, the dirtiest, the spottiest, and the most authentic of all the seminal English bands of the 1960s . The Animals, as their name was always meant to convey, were the most uncompromisingly raw rock band of their time, making no concessions to respectability or cosmetic presentation . From Newcastle, England they were a sensation . ' The House of The Rising Sun ' was, in its time, the longest single ever made and its crude energy established them as a major force in British pop music . Other hits followed: ' We Gotta Get Out of This Place ' . ' I'm Crying ' . ' Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood ' . ' Inside Looking Out ' . This book is a searching, honest and often hilarious history of this classic band . Fully illustrated, and written with the co-operation of members of the Animals themselves,...
