Have you ever been curious about an historical event and the people that were almost in the story Malchus is that kind of story. As a historical figure, he was the slave of the High Priest, Caiaphas at the arrest of Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane. He is mentioned one time in the New Testament. Here his story is told in a way that strips away thousands of years of religious material and tries to look at the man who experienced a miracle of healing. We glimpse the New Testament period through the eyes of a heathens rational observance. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
