Excerpt: . . . 11 should exclude both fee petition cases and fee agreement cases for which there is outstanding development. While we agree that, in general, attorneys should receive their fees timely, there are cases in which the extra time needed to process the attorney fee payment is not within SSAs control. These cases include not only fee agreement cases with outstanding development, but virtually all fee petition cases, since the attorney is not required to file a request for payment until 60 days from the date of the decision, and may even request an extension beyond the 60 days. For instance, in the case of a 30-day time limit, the Actuaries estimate that about two-thirds of the payments would be lost. Extending Attorney Fee Withholding to the SSI Program SSI is a means-tested program providing cash assistance to aged, blind, and disabled individuals whose incomes and resources are below minimal levels set by law. Currently, individuals with countable income above 512 a month and countable re-sources above 2, 000 are not eligible for SSI. As you can see, SSI beneficiaries are among the most vulnerable Americans in that they have little in the way of other income or personal savings. Arguably, SSI applicants are even...
