It enables me to check waste, to advise as to the manner of expenditure, and especially to prevent the bad effects arising from boys carelessly leaving money about. This surveillance over a little boy s purse is rendered the more expedient by the fact, that in some cases the pocket-money allowed by parents is extravagantly great. 27. Each boy provides himself with six towels, otherwise every description of furniture is provided by me without any extra charge. III. 6. In reply to question 6, I have filled up the tabular form D. I have not filled up E, as with the exception of the Holy Scripture lesson on Sunday, and a portion of Holy Scripture learned by heart, there is no time for any instruction beyond that given in preparation of schoolwork. I3. There are no established prizes in the lower school. Prizes, however. for good conduct and proficiency are liberally awarded by the lower master at his own expense at the termination of each school-time, and after the regular examinations. Prizes are also given in the same manner by me as tutor to those of my pupils who have deserved them by diligence and application. Similar prizes are given lg the mathematical master. I5. very lesson is first prepared, and then construed in the pupil room before the boys go into school. The construing lesson in school occupies one hour, the previous construing of the same lesson in the pupil room occupies...
